Trinity Presbyterian Church's "Souls for Soles" Campaign

"Trinity Presbyterian heeded the call for men's shoes by launching a Soles for Souls campaign. Over 60 pairs of shoes were collected in 2 weeks and donated to the Stewpot closet. All were distributed within a week. It's not just about cooking and feeding - it's about reaching out to the other needs of our clients!"

Stewpot Gets More Shoes From Fleet Feet Easy Runner

On Friday, September 30, Charlie Frith got a call from Noelle Coughlan at Fleet Feet Easy Runner saying that they had more shoes for Stewpot. Charlie picked up three boxes of shoes and took them to Stewpot.

Stewpot Prepares Christmas Gifts for Stewpot Patrons

Christmas is coming and the Stewpot is preparing Christmas Gifts. Each year, Kay Shugar shops for bargains to be included in the Gift Bag prepared for Stewpot patrons. She tries to hold the cost to $10.00 per bag. To prepare approximately 150 bags costs $1,500. All contributions help. Just a gift of $10.00 will buy the items needed for one gift bag. If you would like to help this year, write a check to The Stewpot, include Christmas Bags in the memo section, and mail it to:

Clothes Closet

"I needed clothes and you clothed me."

How Can I as a Stewpot Volunteer Help the Clothes Closet?

Charlie Frith, Stewpot Newsletter Editor, recently sent out an email to Stewpot Volunteers asking for their help in the collection of clothes for the Stewpot - particularly men's socks and underwear. He received the following email response from a Stewpot volunteer.

I volunteer once a month at Stewpot, and I received the email from our team leader about the need for some specific clothing items for the Clothes Closet. After emailing my church office with how to get the word out to our congregation, they told me that they will be adding a 'missions' page on our church website as well as putting an insert into the church bulletin in November with missions requests. So I'm happy to share information about Stewpot and the Clothes Closet through these two avenues with my church. What, specifically, should I put as far as the need for clothing and hygiene items? And If I get donations (items or money), what is the best way to get those to you? Thanks so much! Just want to help Stewpot and the Clothes Closet in any way I can.

Charlie responded to the volunteer with this email.

What a great idea! When you go to the Stewpot on your regular day, you can take any money or checks and give them to Janie, who is the secretary in the main office. Any clothes that you collect you can give to Ed Brown. Ed will see that they get into the Clothes Closet. They always need socks, underwear, jeans, and shoes. The Newsletter, which comes out quarterly, almost always list things that they need at that point in time. I am conving Barbara on this email who is in time. I am copying Barbara on this email, who is in charge of the Clothes Closet. You can always email her and ask her what they need. Thanks again.

My Question to all of the Stewpot volunteers is: Could you do something similar at your church?
